SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

First Reading: Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

Matthias is chosen by lot to succeed Judas. His chief qualification is his being a witness to the resurrection of Christ. After that, the Twelve are restored as a chosen number.

Second Reading: I John 4:11-16

Here is a final exhortation from Jesus before His passion urging His chosen apostles to love one another and believe in God's love for them through the power of the Spirit. John reasserts that God is love.

Gospel: John 17:11b-19

In His great prayer for the disciples, Jesus blesses them and then He sends them into the world. He also consecrates them in truth.

PARISH NEWS

Congratulation to our children who made their First Holy Communion yesterday. We began our 40 Hours celebration following that Mass. Today, Sunday, we continue the 40 Hours celebration with the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament before each Mass. Also, at the 9:30 a.m. Mass our First Communion Class will be especially honored. It will be an opportunity for the entire parish to share our joy and enthusiasm for the children.

On Monday, we will close our 40 Hours and have our annual May Procession. This should be a very special moment for our parish under the title of the Immaculate Conception. We are asking all the children of the parish to take part in this devotion, especially those who have made their sacraments this year. We will celebrate with Solemn Benediction and the crowning of the Blessed Mother. One of the titles of Mary is Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. In this celebration we honor Jesus and Mary. We are fortunate to have the use of the monstrance that St. Katherine Drexel gave to the Pink Sisters.

May is the month especially dedicated to our Blessed Mother. The Family Rosary this month is on Tuesday May 22nd at 7:00 p.m. Praying the rosary is a wonderful Catholic devotional practice. Please come as a family and intercede to our Blessed Mother for all of your needs and those you love.

This weekend May 12 and 13 there will be Pro-Life Roses available. Please receive these and pass them on to the women in your lives. Any donations will be given to the Pro-Life Union for the protection of life from a mother's womb to the natural end.

Club 55 welcomes "sweet spring time" and invites all members and friends to their covered dish May meeting. The entertainment will be provided by Freyda Thomas who will share the music and the stories of the Diva Stars. The meeting will be held in Conahan Hall on Thursday May 24th at 12 noon. All are welcome.

Elections for Pastoral Council continue this weekend. You will be able to vote either electronically, by clicking the link on the Church website www.iccjenkintown.org or by filling out the paper ballot which will be in the pews this weekend. The biographies of those nominated is available in Church. Please only vote once, either electronically or by paper copy. If you vote by paper ballot, please place your completed ballot in the box located in the vestibule.

Immaculate Conception Track & Field Team has a long history of excellence and to continue that tradition we need more girls and more boys to join the track and field team next year. There is an event for every athlete in track and field.

Yesterday we celebrated First Holy Communion with twenty-six of our young parishioners. It was a beautiful celebration and the parish expresses gratitude to Ms. Marie McGuigan for her leadership in PREP and for the teachers and catechists who helped prepare the children. We particularly thank the parents for their primary role as first teachers of the faith and commend them for this important step on their child's spiritual journey.
