TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Reading I: Amos 6: 1a, 4-7

The idle rich are not blamed by the prophet for their pleasure-seeking, but for not noticing or caring about the pending collapse of "Joseph", meaning Israel.

Reading II: I Timothy 6: 11-16

Paul instructs Timothy on how he is to behave as the pastor of a flock. He is to remember most of all about how Jesus kept the faith in His Father as He faced His passion and death in the reign of Pilate.

The Gospel: Luke 16: 19-31

Here is one of Luke's "example stories." The question comes to the five brothers of the rich man and to us: Will they (and we) observe the teachings of the Old Testament and of Jesus about care for the needy around us? Will they (and we) even notice them?

There is no Second Collection this weekend.

Due to the large enrollment in the Level 1 PREP class we are in need of a second Catechist. If you are interested in teaching Level 1, please contact Eleanor Padlo at 215-887-1501 or dre.immaculateconception@gmail.com. We are also in need of teacher aides for various classrooms. Please note you will need to provide or obtain all Safe Environment clearances in order to teach. Mary Kate Guerin can assist you with this.

Please join us for the blissing of the animals on Saturday October 5th at 1:00 p.m. on the lawn in front of the Rectory.
